

Active Shooter Threat Instructor Training Program
(Course number G_XP_ASTITP-701SLTD)
Dates: November 14th-18th, 2015 (5 day class)
Time: 8:00 am until 5:00 pm daily

The Active Shooter Threat Instructor Training Program (ASTITP) is designed to qualify the student to be a field training agent or officer by providing them with high quality training and instilling the analytical knowledge, skills and attitudes needed for the highest proficiency in this specialized field. The course takes Active Shooter Threat Tactics Training to the next level by emphasizing leadership; teach backs, and adult learning as well as the traditional technical skills needed by field training officers and special agents. This course is an intensive training program that covers a variety of tactical subject matters to include individual and team movement, and operational formation. In addition, this program focuses on the role of the field trainer and emphasizes evaluation skills and documentation requirements. Upon successful completion of the course, each student will receive a certificate of completion and will be officially recognized as an Active Shooter Threat Tactics Instructor.
