

Autism Action Partnership invites law enforcement practitioners to attend two innovative trainings to help you recognize and respond to individuals with autism and other intellectual/developmental disabilities

Wednesday, June 13, 2018
Goodwill Industries Benson Park Plaza
4805 N 72nd St., Omaha

Presented by creator, Emily Iland M.A. & self-advocate Tom Iland

EXPERIENCE AUTISM

8:00 AM – 12:00 PM

This innovative training will help you recognize the features of autism and other intellectual/developmental disabilities (I/DD). You'll learn how to communicate and interact effectively with these individuals.

50 slots available

To register, contact miranda.vaughan@cityofomaha.org

COMMUNITY PIZZA LUNCH

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

All participants are invited to a pizza lunch, where law enforcement practitioners, individuals with autism, family members, educators, service providers, and community members can relax and get to know one another

BE SAFE INTERACTIVE MOVIE SCREENING

1:00 PM – 3:30 PM

This community safety event brings together law enforcement officers and teens/adults with autism and other I/DD to get a chance to know and interact with one another. You'll have the chance to mentor them and practice safety skills such as following instructions and asking for help.

25 officers who attended Experience Autism may participate

To register, contact miranda.vaughan@cityofomaha.org

Presenting Sponsors