FEMALE ENFORCERS

Advanced mental, physical, and tactical skills to survive

HOST: Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center

LOCATION: Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center
3600 N Academy Road, Grand Island, Nebraska, 68801

DATE: September 12th, 2019 • 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Female Enforcers addresses the reality of working as a woman in law enforcement. The seminar aims to enhance the proficiency of female crime fighters mentally, physically, and tactically.

Far too often, women are pressed into a male-focused mold of work and training in this profession. Female Enforcers addresses this issue head-on, preparing female leaders to take the helm.

Course topics include:

- Battling bias and misperceptions
- Obstacles to tactical training and equipment issues
- Use of force: options and differences
- Physical and emotional health
- Current events and their cultural impact
- The history of women in police work
- Managing a male-dominated culture
- Discussing and examining female officer case studies
- The importance of leadership and mentoring among female officers
