

Nebraska Coalition To End Sexual & Domestic Violence
and
Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center

Creating a Team for Survivors in Nebraska Learning to Work With Law Enforcement

May 21st , 2018

8:30am-4:30pm

NLETC

3600 North Academy Rd Grand Island, Ne
FREE!

Advocates will learn, but not limited to:

- What does it mean when officers cannot arrest.
- How can law enforcement help victims?
- What limits & barriers law enforcement faces in working domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking calls for service?
- What do the officers need that advocates can help with?
- How do you establish and maintain these collaborations?

To register, email the following information to:

sarahb@nebraskacoalition.org or fax 402-476-6806

Name: _____

Program: _____

Email: _____

Up to two pieces of information you are wanting to learn on this training day! _____

For more information or questions contact:

Sarah Balcom

Domestic Violence Program Coordinator

Note: Lunch is on your own. The cafeteria at NLETC accepts cash in case you decide to eat there.

